Jeff – could we wait until after Pillon’s direct appeal is over? That is actually being argued today, so hopefully we will have a decision in a couple months. Would hanging onto them that long be difficult?

Thanks,

Scott

Good morning, Scott. We still have some samples from the 2016 warrant entry at Pillon’s property at our lab in Manchester. May we dispose of them now?

Jeff:

I’ve been in contact with Gerald Dodo at the Manchester Lab to help give him permission to dispose of old samples of now-closed CID leads/cases. He provided me with a list of the things he thought were CID leads/cases. Some were not ours however; you are listed as the contact for the subject facility. May I give him permission to destroy samples associated with this matter?

Thanks.
